

STEPHEN W. WESTON, J.D.

Steve Weston is a 32-year veteran of the California Highway Patrol and California State Police. For 15 years he managed a specialized unit responsible for the assessment and management of threats against California state officials and government facilities. Concurrently for 3 years, Mr. Weston commanded the CHP's Anti-Terrorism Intelligence operations and managed the Dept.'s participation in federal and local anti-terrorism task forces. He has been on the faculty of California State University, Sacramento, in the Criminal Justice Division as an instructor in a course entitled "Violence and Terrorism". Mr. Weston earned his law Degree from Lincoln Law School in Sacramento and is a member of the California State Bar Association

Steve Weston is the co-author, (with Frederick S. Calhoun) of five books; Defusing the Risk to Judicial Officials: The Contemporary Threat Management Process, Contemporary Threat Management: A Practical Guide, Threat Assessment and Management Strategies: Identifying Hunters and Howlers, Concepts and Case Studies in Threat Management, and most recently Threat Assessment and Management Strategies: Identifying Hunters and Howlers, 2nd Edition.

Mr. Weston consults with government and private organizations in the management of threatening situations and lectures throughout the country on threat management topics. He has served as president of the Northern California chapter of the Association of Threat Assessment Professionals (ATAP).

Mr. Weston may be contacted at Weston@volcano.net.